

A Community Response to Bullying presents
A FREE COMMUNITY PROGRAM PROMOTING KINDNESS AND RESPECT

DO YOU ACCEPT RACHEL'S CHALLENGE?

Rachel Scott was the first student killed at Columbine High School, one of the deadliest incidents of school violence in US history. Shortly before her death, she wrote, “I have this theory that if one person can go out of their way to show compassion, then it will start a chain reaction of the same. People will never know how far a little kindness can go.”

This simple, yet profound philosophy defuses bullying, disrespect, and prejudice, bringing hope where there is isolation and despair.

Accept the Challenge on October 9th at 6:45 pm at the Jack B. Kussmaul Theater at Frederick Community College

7932 Opossumtown Pike, Frederick, Maryland, 21702

Together we can learn how to inspire, equip and empower each other in creating a positive culture change in our community by starting a chain reaction of kindness and compassion. This program is intended for a teen/adult audience, child care will not be provided.
